Director General
Office of Comptroller and Auditor General of India

Dear Mr Sasidharan,

Thank you very much for sending me your book of poems. First, it is fascinating to know that a poet exists and thrives amid the endless numbers and documents in the office of the Comptroller and Auditor General of India. Though I spend most of my reading time on non-fiction, and can't claim to have read much of poetry, a quick glance of your work reveals an interesting poet. If my travel schedule permits, I will certainly try to be at the book launch. Wish you all the best—and many more poems.

Yours truly,

Shekhar Gupta
